

European Social Security Services

Fragomen at a glance

Fragomen is the world's leading single-focus provider of immigration and related services. We leverage our collective immigration experience to offer targeted and trusted solutions that help clients achieve their business goals. Fragomen's team of dedicated immigration professionals has extensive experience working with multinational businesses, conglomerates, local employers, start-ups and individual investors. We have a deep understanding of the complexity of the European region and maintain strong Government relationships with European institutions, as well as with the national immigration, employment and social security authorities.

Where we operate

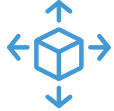

Our European immigration and social security teams are supported on a global basis by nearly 5,500 immigration professionals and support staff in 62 offices worldwide. Together, we provide immigration services in more than 170 countries.

Our social security services

Fragomen provides end-to-end social security services in the European region. From the outset, we strategize with clients to ensure appropriate management of their social security programs. We assist clients with Certificate of Coverage applications (CoC or A1 certificates in Europe) as well as with applications for a social security number or local social security registrations of their employees.

Our strong relationships with governments and institutions at both European and national level, in combination with tailored guidance and support, ensure seamless social security program management.

What we do

Automated assessments on the applicable legislation and streamlined social security A1/CoC filings through our technology

Management of complex social security inquiries and Certificate of Coverage (CoC) and A1 applications, including expedited processing pursuant to government relationships

Transactional and consultative support with employee/employer social security registrations and de-registrations

Social security briefings to employees on entitlement to social security benefits and obtainment of respective certificates

Development, implementation and management of social security programs

Social security compliance checks and audits, expiry tracking of documents, dashboards and reportings

Thought leadership posts, as well as regional client alerts and publications

Why you should choose Fragomen

At Fragomen, we have the knowledge, experience and technology to offer solutions for your Day One Compliance requirements for your employee travelers, from an immigration, posted workers and social security perspective. Our dedicated team has the know-how and government relationships to provide strategic advice on your complex social security matters across Europe.

For further information on how to be compliant with social security, please contact:

FCE@fragomen.com

socialsecurity@fragomen.com