Fragomen Named a 2019 FEM EMEA EMMAs Immigration Provider of the Year

Fragomen has been named a 2019 Forum for Expatriate Management (FEM) EMEA EMMAs (Expatriate Management & Mobility Awards) Immigration Provider of the Year.

The award was announced on Thursday 21 November 2019, at an awards ceremony at the InterContinental O2, in London. The FEM EMMAs are the premier awards for the global mobility and International HR industry and, following a highly successful two-day Summit, key figures and leaders gathered to celebrate the brightest and the best in the EMEA region.

Fragomen has previously been recognized as an Immigration Provider of the Year from 2012 to 2016.

Claire Tennant-Scull, Global Director, Content & Events at FEM said: “The EMMAs are the premier Awards ceremony for Global Mobility in EMEA and across the globe, with the greatest breadth of categories for both corporate professionals and service providers.”

“This year more than ever too, I think we can claim that our Summit and Awards truly reflect global mobility right across EMEA, as we have seen a huge increase in entries from all parts of Continental Europe, as well as Turkey and the Middle East,” she added.

EMMAs entries are rigorously judged by a team of fiercely impartial, highly experienced, senior figures in the industry, who are drawn from a range of disciplines across the EMEA region and who give up their own free time to carry out a very thorough and demanding process. So, these awards carry tremendous kudos. It’s so important to receive recognition among your peers for innovation and hard work and so I think the winners and all those on the shortlist should feel extremely proud.

This year the FEM EMMAs saw entries across a diverse set of categories, and the independent judging panel made up of industry experts remarked on the high standard of the entries.

Judged against a strict set of criteria, the competition for this award was fierce. In fact, in an unprecedented development, the judges decided to award the EMMA for Immigration Provider of the Year to both Fragomen and EY.

The judges commented on Fragomen’s entry:

“Fragomen has shown that they truly are leaders in the field of immigration, with their investment in technology, and global coverage which allows them to provide unparalleled service.”

FEM is very grateful to the EMMAs sponsors: Clearmove, Fragomen, ECA International, Alchemy, Personnel Today and also to our esteemed panel of judges for all their hard work and careful consideration of every entry.

The Forum for Expatriate Management (FEM) is a real-world and online community for the global mobility and HR industry.
